HOLD ON TO HOPE

SEPTEMBER 2013

STAYING ON MESSAGE, EVERY DAY

We hear a lot about "messaging". It's a term politicians use when planning campaigns, and a word public relations firms consider vital. When a person or business is "messaging" well, success is supposed to follow.

Thinking about this idea, I considered the clients who come to us each day. What is our message to them? If we are successful in our messaging, what are they taking home with them after a visit to our center?

For our clients then, these are our messages....

Faith

Faith, we are told in Hebrews, is the "assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." Our clients come to us in desperate situations where only by faith can they see with clarity the right path to choose. When we share a message of faith, this faith brings hope to what appears to be a hopeless situation.

Hope

No matter the circumstances and regardless of past decisions, there is always hope. The fact that there is a God who loves us enough to send His son Jesus Christ, attests to this truth. We share hope. Always. If our clients see there is hope, they make better decisions.

Love

We want those who come in our door to know for certain that we love them. Ours is a love that reaches out; a love that seeks the best for them and a love that will not walk away from them in tough times. Love never fails. We want our clients to know this kind of love; a love they may have never seen before.

And one more...Life

Choosing life results from embracing faith, hope, and love. Whether our client chooses adoption or parenting, life is always a wise decision.

When a client understands that our message begins with faith, hope, and love, the message of life is so much more powerful. This is our messaging. This message worked fairly well in New Testament times; it seems like a good message for today, too.

In July we performed more pregnancy tests in that one month than New Hope has done since it was started in 1999. But we are not satisfied. We are looking for those who believe in our message as we expand our services to include testing for sexually transmitted diseases and prenatal care. This will help us to further market New Hope's message, reach more lives and ultimately save and change lives both physically and spiritually. The time is now. All we need is you.

"Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at sea. We are far too easily pleased." C.S. Lewis

What would God do in Yadkin County and our surrounding area through New Hope Pregnancy Care if money were no object?
